“theatre you can almost touch”

from the chairman

I am pleased that, thanks to your continuing support, we have kept our ticket prices at the 2015-16 level once more for Great Hall Theatre Company's latest selection of plays that we think you would like to see.

Our opening comedy, Audacity, is followed by The Herd, which premièred at The Bush Theatre in September 2013. Sixty years separate the opening nights of this family drama and Someone Waiting, which occupies our winter slot and was also written by an actor. I am glad that we have been able to include this thriller in our programme as I have felt for a number of years that a reassessment of the work of Emyln Williams was overdue.

In the second half of the season, our period drama, The Edge of Darkness, is followed by another comedy, Ladies Who Lunch, with a backstage thriller, Proscenophobia, to round things off in the summer.

My thanks go to all cast and crew for their hard work over the last year, but especially to our retiring Wardrobe Mistress, who is also relinquishing some of the myriad additional duties she has undertaken over many years of loyal service, and to the staff at The Assembly House. Enjoy the season!
